

I am now pleased that we can get through a meal without telephone solicitors calling. The do not call law was the best law anyone ever came up with. We deserve our privacy.